4.2 All initial cash contributions to capital shall be made by way of payment to the Partnership's bank account and such sums shall be credited to each of the Partners' respective Capital Accounts.

4.3 Where any contribution to or repayment of the Partnership's capital is made by way of a transfer of an asset by or to a Partner rather than payment of cash, then the value of that contribution or repayment shall be decided in accordance with this agreement in advance of such contribution or repayment being made. The amount of such value shall be credited or debited to that Partner's Capital Account.

4.4 Interest shall be payable on sums standing to the credit of each Partner's Capital Account at the annual rate as the Partners may set up by mutual consent. Such reduction shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of his profit share by such excess number of complete days' absence, including Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays, dividing the resulting figure by 365 and deducting such amount from his share of Net Profit. In the event of such reduction being made, the other Partners' profit shares shall be increased in the proportions (as between themselves) in which they share Net Profits.

23.1 An Outgoing Partner shall not, directly or indirectly, on his own behalf or as agent, employee or partner or otherwise on behalf of anyone else, do any of the following, without the written consent of the General Partners during the period of twenty four months following his Leaving Date:

23.1.1 canvass, solicit business from or endeavour to attract away from the Partnership, any person known by him to be a client or customer for whom the Partnership shall have acted or with whom it shall have dealt in the twenty four months before his Leaving Date; or

23.1.2 act for or deal with any such person; or

23.1.3 compete with the Partnership or engage in any business of a similar nature or similar Name to that of the Partnership, within two miles from any business premises of the Partnership as at his Leaving Date;

23.1.4 canvass, solicit, employ or otherwise engage anyone who is a Partner or a senior employee of the Partnership at the time of his Leaving Date, with whom he has had dealings in the Business for a period of twenty four months before his Leaving Date; or 23.1.5 assist or facilitate anyone else to do anything which if done by him would have been a breach of this clause 23.

23.2 Each of the restrictions in clause 23.1, which are intended to be separate and severable, are considered fair and reasonable by the General Partners. If any restriction is found to be unenforceable, but would be valid if any part of it were deleted, or the period or area of application reduced, the restriction shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to make it valid and enforceable.

24 Further Provisions for Outgoing Partners

24.1 An Outgoing Partner must return to the Managing Partner all books of account, records, deeds, drafts, letters and other documents, whether in paper or electronic form, relating to the Partnership which are in his possession or under his control. For a period of two months after his Leaving Date, the Outgoing Partner shall be entitled to inspect such documents, insofar as they relate to the period before his Leaving Date, on giving reasonable notice to the Managing Partner.

24.2 When any Partner ceases to be a Partner, the Continuing Partners shall publish notice of the change in the Partnership in the London Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the area of the Premises, and shall give notice in writing of the change in the Partnership to all third parties who have in the last twenty four months had any dealings with the Partnership (whether as suppliers to it or as clients or customers of it) and shall, before doing so, use their reasonable endeavours to agree the terms of such notice with the Outgoing Partner.

24.3 An Outgoing Partner shall do or procure to be done all such further acts and things, and execute or procure the execution of all such other documents as the Continuing Partners may from time to time reasonably require for the purpose of enabling the Continuing General Partners to recover the outstanding assets of the Partnership or for the purpose of transferring to the Continuing Partners any Partnership Property which, on the Leaving Date, is vested in the Outgoing Partner as one of the Partners or on trust for the Partners. The Outgoing Partner irrevocably and by way of security appoints each and any of the Continuing Partners as his attorney to sign, execute and deliver on his behalf all deeds and documents and to do all acts and things necessary to give effect to the terms of this agreement.

25 Confidentiality

25.1 Confidential Information means:

25.1.1 any information relating to the Partners, the Partnership or the Business;

25.1.2 any information relating to the prospective business, technical processes, computer software, intellectual property rights or finances of the Partnership, including price lists, lists and details of customers and suppliers (both current and those who were customers or suppliers during the previous two years);

25.1.3 any information relating to the affairs of any customer, supplier, agent, distributor or sub-contractor of the Partnership;

25.1.4 all documents, papers and property which may have been made or prepared by, or at the request of, any Partner or which come into any Partner's possession or under his control in the course of the Business; and

25.1.5 compilations of two or more items of such information and all information which has been, or may be, derived or obtained from any such information which, at any time, comes into any Partner's possession or under his control in the course of the Business and which the Partnership regards or could reasonably be expected to regard as confidential, whether or not such information is, in itself, confidential, marked as "confidential" or reduced to tangible form.

25.2 Each Partner and Outgoing Partner undertakes that he shall not at any time, use, divulge or communicate to any person, except to his professional representatives or advisers or as may be required by law or any legal or regulatory authority, any Confidential Information concerning the Business, the affairs of the Partnership or the other General Partners, which may have come to his knowledge. Each of the Partners and Outgoing Partners shall use his reasonable endeavours to prevent the publication or disclosure of any Confidential Information concerning such matters.

25.3 Each Partner and Outgoing Partner shall immediately inform the Partnership if he becomes aware of the possession, use or knowledge of any Confidential Information by any person who is not authorised to possess, use or have knowledge of it.

25.4 All Confidential Information shall, as between each Partner and the Partnership, be deemed to be Partnership Property.

25.5 For the purposes of this agreement, Confidential Information does not include information which:

25.5.1 is or becomes generally available to the public, other than as a result of disclosure by a Partner or an Outgoing Partner, or their representatives or advisers, contrary to their obligations of confidentiality; or 25.5.2 is or becomes available to a Partner or an Outgoing Partner otherwise than pursuant to this agreement or the Business and is free of any restriction as to its use or disclosure.

25.6 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy of the other Partners howsoever arising, any failure by a Partner or an Outgoing Partner to comply with the provisions of this clause shall constitute a breach of this agreement, entitling the Partnership to require that Partner or Outgoing Partner to account to the Partnership for any personal benefit thereby acquired and to expel such Partner from the Partnership immediately in accordance with clause 21.

26 Dissolution

26.1 No Partner shall be capable of dissolving the Partnership unilaterally by means of a notice, and the Partnership shall not automatically dissolve on the death or bankruptcy of any Partner or on any Partner allowing his share to be charged under the Act.

26.2 If the Partnership is dissolved, the affairs of the Partnership shall be wound up and the assets and liabilities dealt with in the manner provided by the Act.

27 Entire Agreement

27.1 This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all previous discussions, correspondence, negotiations, arrangements, understandings and agreement between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter.

27.2 Each party acknowledges that, in entering into this agreement it does not rely on, and shall have no remedies in respect of, any representation or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this agreement.

27.3 Each party agrees that its only liability in respect of those representations and warranties that are set out in this agreement (whether made innocently or negligently) shall be for breach of contract.

27.4 Nothing in this clause shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud.

28 Notice

28.1 A notice given under this agreement:

28.1.1 shall be in writing;

28.1.2 shall be sent for the attention of the person, and to the address or fax number, specified in this clause 28 (or such other address, fax number or person as each party may notify to the others in accordance with the provisions of this clause 28); and

28.1.3 shall be:

a) delivered personally; or

b) sent by fax; or

c) sent by pre-paid first-class post or recorded delivery; or

d) (if the notice is to be served by post outside the country from which it is sent) sent by airmail.

28.2 A notice is deemed to have been received:

28.2.1 if delivered personally, at the time of delivery; or

28.2.2 in the case of fax, at the time of transmission; or

28.2.3 in the case of pre-paid first class post, recorded delivery, ten Business days from the date of posting; or

28.2.4 in the case of registered airmail, fifteen Business Days from the date of posting; or

28.2.5 if deemed receipt under the previous paragraphs of this clause 28.2 is not within business hours (meaning 9:00 am to 5:30 pm Monday to Friday on a day that is not a public holiday in the place of receipt), when business next starts in the place of receipt.

28.3 To prove service, it is sufficient to prove that the notice was transmitted by fax to the fax number of the party or, in the case of post, that the envelope containing the notice was properly addressed and posted.

29 Severance

29.1 If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this agreement (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this agreement shall not be affected.

29.2 If any invalid, unenforceable or illegal provision of this agreement would be valid, enforceable and legal if some part of it were deleted, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to amend such provision such that, as amended, it is legal, valid and enforceable, and, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the parties' original commercial intention.

30 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

30.1 This agreement and any disputes or claims arising out of or in connection with its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of Scotland.

30.2 The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of Scotland have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with this agreement, its subject matter or formation.

31 Dispute Resolution

31.1 Except as otherwise provided, any dispute arising out of or in connection with this agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, or the legal relationships established by this agreement, shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration under the Rules of the London Court of International Arbitration, which Rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause.

31.2 This clause shall be without prejudice to the rights of any party to seek any injunctive or similar relief from the courts to protect its intellectual property rights, confidentiality obligations, restrictions on the activities of any Partner or former Partner or other rights of any description.
